RE: INFORMATION TO BE PROVIDED TO DISTRICT CLERK UPON ENTRY OF A SUIT AFFECTING PARENT CHILD RELATIONSHIP

1. INFORMATION TO BE PROVIDED TO CLERK OF COURT (Form fmly92 - Notice to Clerk)

According to Section 105.006 of the Texas Family Code effective September 1, 1995:

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (c), the court shall order each party to inform each other party, the court that rendered the order, and the state case registry under Chapter 234 of an intended change in any of the information required by this section as long as any person, as a result of the order, is under an obligation to pay child support or is entitled to possession of or access to a child. The court shall order that notice of the intended change be given at the earlier of:

- (1) the 60th day before the date the party intends to make the change;
- or
- (2) the fifth day after the date that the party knew of the change, if the party did not know or could not have known of the change in sufficient time to comply with Subdivision (1).

(c) If a court finds after notice and hearing that requiring a party to provide the information required by this section to another party is likely to cause the child or a conservator harassment, abuse, serious harm, or injury, the court may:

- (1) order the information not to be disclosed to another party; or
- (2) render any other order the court considers necessary.

2. CERTIFICATE BY ATTORNEY (Form fmly93 - Certificate)

Prior to the Court signing a decree in a suit affecting the parent-child relationship that orders child support or possession of, or access to a child, at least one attorney, or a party not represented by an attorney, must file a signed certificate certifying to the Court that the information required by Texas Family Code 105.006 has been filed with the Court in the form attached to this notice as Certificate.

These forms may be obtained from the District Clerk's Office.
